Madame

Transmis par Mme
la Comtesse de Bollen.
je prends la liberté
de vous envoyer cet
extrait d'une lettre
de ma chère et ex-
cellente amie Mme
de Balleben.

Mme la Comtesse Minde
que je rencontrai par
accident chez la
Comtesse Bollen m'a
dit que vous cherchiez

une institutrice Anglaise. Je n'ai pas
l'avantage de con-
naître Miss Bayley...
la dame pour laquelle
M<sup>lle</sup> de Baudleben s'interesse - mais
je suis persuadée
que sa recommanda-
tion vaudra bien la
mienne.

J'irai dans ce
moment à la
de B - et je serois avec vous.

chargée de pouvoir
lui donner des
bonnes espérances de
placer sa protégée
dans une famille
pour laquelle je
connois bien son
respect et son at-tachement.

Je vous prie, M<sup>lle</sup> la Comtesse, d'agréer l'assurance de toute
ma considération

M<sup>re</sup> Austin presents her compliments to his Excellency Baron Bulow & if it is not asking too great
a favour, would be very grateful for his Excellency's advice & assistance as to a passport for
Carlsbad

Dear Herr von Hauner,

I wish to procure
the advantage of your acquaintance for Mr.
Edw. Alfred Shaw who is going to Leipzig & thence to Berlin. I wish also to procure for you
the pleasure of knowing a lady who with delight
you both by her singing, & by her agreeable conversation & manners, &

by that true & high sentiment of Art which are unhappily to be seen among our so-called artists, & which you &
I regard with so much veneration.

You, our greatest Historians must excuse Mr. A. & me to sing to you some of our national ballads - & some of the <sup>popular</sup> favorite songs which were like the trumpets of the rebellion.

I have no time
now for a word about
myself, except that we are well & that I am always yours
with the greatest respect & regard

J. Austin.

I have just received this note & had, as you see begun to tear it. But I send it down in, that you may see Dr. Somerville's wishes under his own hand. If you will come & go with us we shall be extremely glad. I forget if you know Mr. S. He is decidedly one of the Wunderlichsten of England for goodness & amiableness as well known for science.

Yours very truly
H. A.

Kidney.
